Importance: High

Ms. Coley and Mr. Satterthwaite:

My colleague Allision Kahn and I just left a voicemail for Mr. Satterthwaite at 717-317-3571 (Mr. Satterthwaite) and spoke to Ms. Coley at 215-620-0278 before she hung up on us after refusing to meet and confer. As I explained in the voicemail I left for Mr. Satterthwaite and to Ms. Coley before she yelled at me and abruptly hung up, Ms. Kahn and I called in order to meet and confer with you pursuant to Local Rule 7-3 and Judge Garnett's Standing Order about the forthcoming motion we plan to file on behalf of Mr. Carter on July 18, 2025. Judge Garnett's Order, at Dkt. 21 (in Ms. Coley's lawsuit), footnote 1 states, "The Court also informs Plaintiff that communications between opposing attorneys about scheduling and other matters are proper, and that the parties should cooperate in good faith on future stipulated extensions of time. The Court also reminds the parties to comply with the Court's standing orders." Ms. Coley's demand that we not call and send an email is directly in conflict with Judge Garnett's standing order which states, "Parties must meet and confer either by videoconference or in person. Email correspondence is insufficient."

In a continued effort to comply with our meet and confer obligations, we ask that you both please return our call or send an email indicating when you are available to meet and confer by phone or zoom. As we explained in our voicemail to Mr. Satterthwaite and attempted to explain to Ms. Coley before she hung up on us, we intend to move to dismiss each of your respective complaints on the following grounds:

Ground 1: insufficient service of process of complaint pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 12(b)(5). Mr. Carter has not been properly served under the law. Mail service is not a valid method of service under CA law and there has been no substitute service because a copy of the summons and complaint was never left with a responsible adult at Defendants' home or workplace and nor is there evidence that copies were mailed to the same address.

Ground 2: lack of subject-matter jurisdiction pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 12(b)(1). Each claim is barred by the Rooker-Feldman Doctrine because they seek to challenge state court orders.

Ground 3: violation of California Code of Civil Procedure 425.16 because (1) each claim arises from prior litigation conduct which is protected activity under CCP 425.16 and (2) no reasonable probability of prevailing on the claims because they are legally barred.

With respect to the second point, their claims are barred on the following grounds:

- Deceit claim
 - o Barred by litigation privilege
 - o Barred by statute of limitations
 - o Complaint concedes Plaintiffs knew and had evidence of the fact they allege was concealed, and therefore, cannot establish an essential element of this claim.
- Abuse of Process
 - o Barred by litigation privilege
 - o Barred by statute of limitations
 - o There are no allegations of misuse of the tools of litigation otherwise available in the "regular conduct" of court proceedings.
- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress/Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress
 - o Barred by litigation privilege
 - o Barred by statute of limitations
 - o Failure to adequately plead extreme and outrageous conduct or actionable emotional distress

- Unjust enrichment
 - o Not a claim under CA law
 - o No allegations of a benefit conferred upon Defendant.

Please also note that we intend to request attorney's fees and costs pursuant to CCP 425.16.

Ground 4: failure to state a valid claim pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 12(b)(6). The basis for this motion is the same as what is identified above as the legal deficiencies of each claim.

Please let us know when you are available to confer in compliance with the Court's rules. Please also let us know if you are willing to dismiss your respective complaints or any claim pled in light of the foregoing.

Regards,

Carla

Hi Ms. Coley and Mr. Satterthwaite:

Ms. Coley – your below email does not indicate if you are continuing to act in pro per or if you have retained legal counsel to represent you this lawsuit. Please confirm if you have retained legal counsel and identify your counsel. As I explained when we spoke on Wednesday and in my follow up email attached, Judge Garnett requires the parties to confer by zoom or in person. Email is not sufficient. The conferral deadline is today and we are filing our motion next Friday. Because you filed your lawsuit pro per, we are required to confer with you directly unless you have retained legal counsel in this lawsuit. If you have retained legal counsel to represent you in your lawsuit please advise who that is and forward this email (with the attachment) to your counsel and ask your counsel to contact me as soon as possible today about conferring.

Mr. Satterthwaite - Ms. Kahn and I just called you at 717-317-3571. The call connected but was disconnected immediately after we identified ourselves. When we called a second time, it went directly to voicemail and we left you a message following up on our prior attempts to confer as required by the Court's rules.

In compliance with Judge Garnett's rules and Local Rule 7-3, we again ask that you each return our calls or respond to our emails indicating a date and time that you are available to confer by zoom. We will be filing our Motions next Friday, July 18, which will detail our attempts to confer with you in compliance with the Court's rules.

Ms. Coley:

As I previously advised you the Court's rules require a video or in person conference so phone is not sufficient. We are available for a zoom conference on Thursday, July 17 at your requested time of 4 pm PST. Please send a zoom invite or advise if you want us to send one.

Mr. Satterthwaite – we follow up again on our attempts to confer with you which have been met with silence to date. Please join the July 17 conference or respond to our emails and voicemails to advise when you are available.

Carla
